

PET RECORDS

RECORDS FOR THE NON-HUMAN KIND

When you have pets in your life, you know they have needs as well. It is a good idea to have a plan in place for your pet in the case of unexpected life events and expected events like relocating with your family. Make sure you have all your ducks, or dogs, in a row.

File Here:

- Spay/neuter records
- Shot records
- Rabies/other certificates
- Pet insurance
- Microchip information
- Service dog paperwork
- _____

You should also know...

Keeping copies and records can help when it comes time to board your pet, PCS (CONUS or OCONUS), go TDY, or deploy.

Hint: Different locations, homeowners associations, rental properties, state, local, and other countries may have registration requirements and restrictions (including breed/species restrictions). Be sure to do your research before you arrive at your new location with your pet(s).
