FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASSOCIATION OF MILITARY BANKS OF AMERICA ANNOUNCES A NEW CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER - WARRENTON, VIRGINIA

Andrew M. Egeland, Jr., President and CEO of the Association of Military Banks of America (AMBA), is pleased to announce AMBA's new Chief Operating Officer, Steven J. Lepper. Mr. Lepper comes to AMBA as the former Acting Director and Deputy Director of the American Bar Association's Rule of Law Initiative and after thirty-five years as an Air Force judge advocate.

In making the announcement, Mr. Egeland stated, "The Association of Military Banks of America is pleased to have Mr. Lepper aboard, as he brings a wealth of knowledge, experience, and a new perspective to the AMBA leadership team. Mr. Lepper with his distinguished service as the Deputy Judge Advocate General, Headquarters, United States Air Force, and military background will enable AMBA to continue to partner with the Department of Defense, military leaders at all levels, leading the banking industry in providing the best financial services possible to military members and their families worldwide."

The Association of Military Banks of America is a not for profit association of banks operating on military installations, banks not located on military installations but serving military customers, and military banking facilities designed by the United States Treasury. Founded in 1959, the association's membership includes both community banks and large multinational financial institutions, all of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. For over fifty-five years, AMBA has been instrumental in helping its members serve the financial needs of military personnel and their families. In August 30 – September 2, 2015, AMBA will hold its Annual Fall Workshop for military bankers and Department of Defense personnel in Leesburg, Virginia.
